Trust commemorates Victory in Europe

Birchington Heritage Trust archives contain a wealth of information, including material from World War II. A few items from our collection which are not normally on display are part of a month-long exhibition in the Museum. We're open during usual library opening times.

On 29th May we're looking forward to an excellent presentation planned by Ian Blackman from the RAF Manston History Museum. Details below:

Derring-do, Decoys and Disasters

With Ian Blackman

at The Centre, Alpha Road, Birchington CT7 9EG

Thursday 29 May at 7.30 pm.

The Bar will be open

The talk is free to Members, guests by donation

All welcome

Ian has had a long career in the aviation industry and volunteers at the RAF Manston History Museum.

All are welcome to attend and support the Trust as the month of "Victory in Europe" Commemorations draws to a close.
